

ASTP
A World of Knowledge
Transfer

SUMMER SCHOOL

THE ROLE OF THE UNIVERSITY AND ITS KTO/TTO IN THEIR LOCAL ECOSYSTEM - building strategic collaborations, co-creation partnerships, strategic consortia, physical and virtual campuses and shared facilities

26-29 AUGUST
2019

ORGANISERS

The course is organized by ASTP, Europe's leading association of knowledge transfer professionals, and the TII network of technology and innovation intermediaries to promote the uptake of tried and tested KT and innovation support methods.

CONTENT

Four-day interactive skills development course delivered by an international group of trainers and incorporating a mix of theory, practical exercises and case studies, taught in a relaxed, informal, multi-cultural training environment.

AMERSFOORT
THE NETHERLANDS

< 1HR FROM SCHIPOL

DATE & VENUE

The course will be held from Monday 26 August at 9.30, through to Thursday 29 August at 16.30. It is hosted by Hogeschool Utrecht at their campus in Amersfoort. The historical city of Amersfoort can be reached by direct train in less than one hour from Schipol international airport.

RATES

Full course: €1 050 for members of TII & ASTP (includes training, materials, lunches & refreshments)

Daily rate: €350

"After our successful first joint summer school in Venice last year, we look forward to welcoming more of you to our new skills development course."

Henric Rhedin, outgoing President, ASTP and Bruno Woeran, outgoing President, TII

Full programme & registration coming soon at www.astp-proton.eu